OPEN HOUSE —SHOWER HELD AT

King's Daughters' Hospital
On Tuesday—Many Gifts
Expression of Esteem

An open house and a shower were held at the Kings Daughters' Hospital on Tuesday, May 12th, from 2 to 5 o'clock P. M. This day being National Hospital Day.

Throughout the hospital were flowers in abundance, beautiful Easter lilies, sweet peas, Queen Anne lace, and numerous other spring flowers.

The people of Hancock were really thoughtful, and the many gifts numbering some 125 different articles of linen, dishes, etc., bears out the fact that the people hold the King's Daughters' Hospital high in their esteem, and are grateful for the splendid work being done by this wonderful organization.

To the doctors of our city, namely Drs. Horton, Smith and Wolfe who so generously give their time and services, and in many instances free, to Mrs. C. E. Craft, the superintendent of the hospital; Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Sr., the night nurse, and to the other nurses in Bay St. Louis, who give their services to our hospital, we owe sincere thanks.

We in Bay St. Louis should feel proud of our small hospital. A visit though it would really be worth your time. It would make you feel that this institution is really a community service, and that whatever help you might lend to it would be worthwhile.

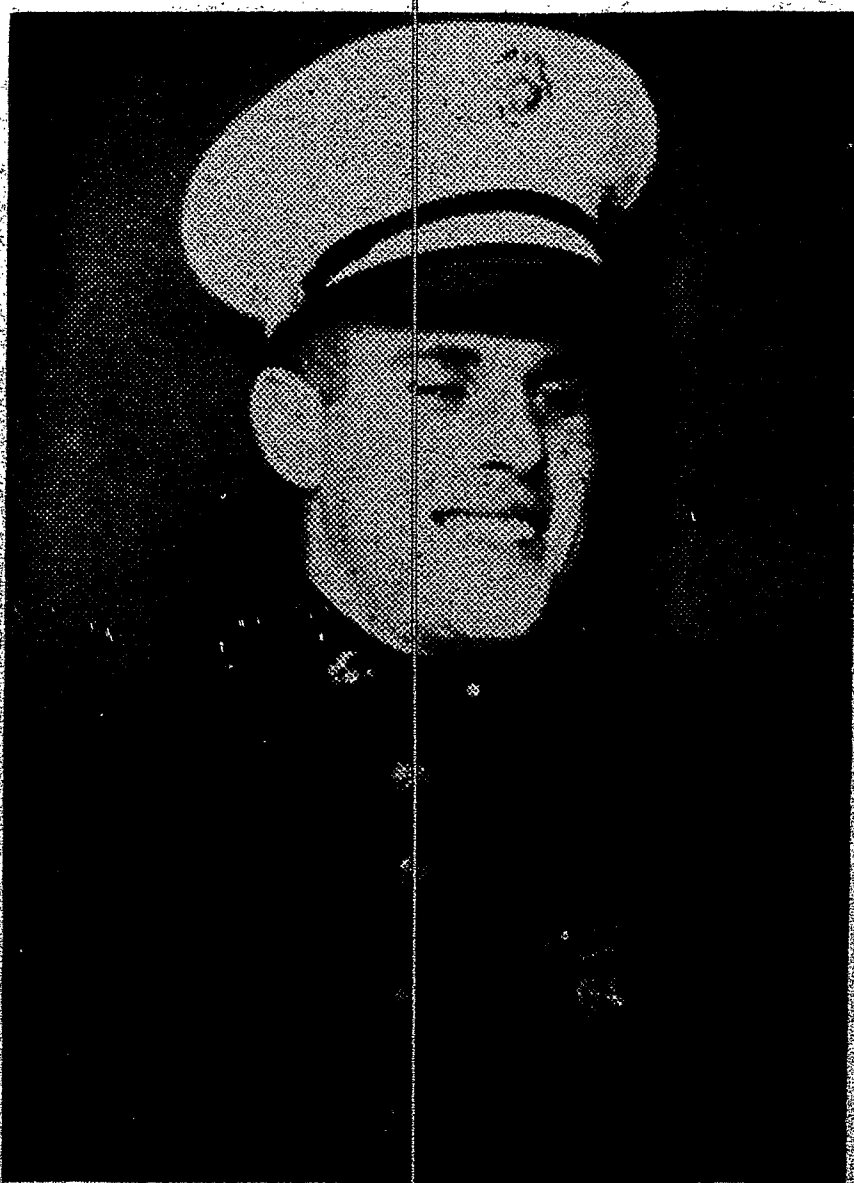

The hospital board wishes to extend to all who sent or brought gifts to the hospital their sincere thanks.

CITY WATER WORKS PROJECT APPROVED

Congressman W. M. Colmer has advised the Mayor and City Commissioners of the City of Bay St. Louis that their City Water Works System Project has been approved by the Works Progress Administration Authorities in Washington, in the amount of $96,413.00.

As and when this project can be put into effect, we are not in a position to say. Very much will depend on priorities. However, we are certain that the Mayor and City Commissioners will do their level best to get the project working and to improve the city water works system, particularly if we are declared a defense area.

COUNTY BOY, MEMBER OF U. S. MARINE CORPS REPORTED MISSING

CORPORAL FRED CURET, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curet of Kiln, 3rd. Battalion, 4th Marines.

At the outbreak of the war he was placed on the eligible list for promotion to the rank of sergeant. The last news that his parents had from him, was a letter written on February 5, 1942 and received on April 2nd.

Fred, Jr., attended Saint Stanislaus College for one year and returned to Kiln High School to continue his studies. On September 5, 1939 he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. At the time he was a senior at Kiln High School. He remained in San Diego, California, until March 30th, 1940, when he was transferred to the Philippines. Shortly after his arrival in the Philippines he was made a Corporal of the 3rd. Battalion, 4th Marines.

It is our sincere hope that this gallant young soldier did not lose his life, and our fervent prayer is that he will return to his parents and lend happiness to them, he being an only child. We are sure that all of the people of Hancock County who know Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curet and Fred, Jr., join us in this wish.

St. Margaret's Daughters Host to Visiting Soldiers

St. Margaret's Daughters were hosts to the group of thirty service men who came with Major Patrick E. Nolan, chief of chaplains and his assistants 1st. Lt. Jerome A. Major, and 1st Lt. John A. Mroczka from Keesler Field, Biloxi, on Sunday evening to attend the Confirmation ceremonies at Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

After the service, the men in company of Major Nolan, Lieut. Major, Lieut. Mroczka, and Very Rev. A. J. Gmelch, gathered in St. Joseph Auditorium where a buffet supper had been spread on two long tables on which flower centerpieces of red roses, white oleanders and blue salvia had been arranged. Bottled beverages were served and a party atmosphere prevailed in the beautifully decorated auditorium which the night before had been the scene of the Junior-Senior Prom of the St. Joseph Academy girls. The boys enjoyed dancing with the young ladies who were on hand to assist in serving the group.

JAMES O. EASTLAND ANNOUNCES

Candidacy for The United States Senate—Election
To Be Held in August

Honorable James O. Eastland of Forrest, Scott County, has announced his candidacy for United States Senator.

Mr. Eastland was appointed by Governor Johnson to the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator Pat Harrison.

Mr. Eastland did not offer as a candidate in the special election for the unexpired term of Senator Harrison. His statement is reproduced herewith.

I am a candidate for the United States Senate in the August Primary.

When Governor Johnson gave me the interim appointment to the Senate last summer following the untimely death of our beloved Pat Harrison, I had been out of politics for a long time and had no thought of ever again becoming a candidate for public office. However, what I heard in my travels over the state since my return from Washington and from the hundreds of letters received convinced me that the people of Mississippi have made up their minds, to elect a new United States Senator and enough of them have volunteered their whole-hearted support to influence me to make the race.

In these perilous times our people not only need, but are demanding leadership; they want action instead of political maneuvering and dilly-dallying in the Senate.

It is the first and paramount duty of the Congress under the Constitution to "provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States." In fact, Congress was created and the Union was formed primarily for this purpose. I make this solemn covenant with the people of Mississippi. If elected to the Senate, I will do everything within my power to avoid all future wars, but if a war is forced upon us, as this one is, we shall be fortified, equipped, and ready. I will do all within my power to fortify our country, make it impregnable to attack and prepared at all times to defend our possessions, and to carry the war to any Nation that may attack us. I will to the utmost see that the Senate completely fulfills its paramount duty of supplying the planes, the guns, the tanks, the arms and implements of war in superior quality and numbers so that never again will American boys be forced to face overwhelming odds, be killed, maimed, or suffer a living death in prison camps because of insufficient arms, equipment, and implements of war. The ability to successfully defend one's self and to make immediate and terrible revenge upon any would-be assassin is still the best guarantee of permanent peace.

The only immediate concern is to win the war. I will cooperate fully with our Commander-in-Chief, the President of the United States, and the leaders of our armed forces to hasten the end of this terrible conflict.

To accomplish this end we must have all-out production, twenty-four hours each day and seven days each week. Anything that interferes with all-out production, whether it be strikes, racketeering in labor, profiteering in industry, or slow-downs in production from any cause must immediately cease.

All non-essential spending must cease and our people assured that the money raised by the sacrifices and privations of the American people will be used to whip the Axis, and not be squandered on pap, pie and politics.

CLASS OF HUNDRED CONFIRMED

At Church of Our Lady of The Gulf By Most Reverend
Bishop R. O. Gerow

On Sunday evening at 7:30, in the impressive services of the Catholic Church, one hundred persons received the Sacrament of Confirmation in one of the largest classes ever to be confirmed at Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

Confirmation was administered by the Most Rev. Bishop Richard O. Gerow of Natchez, and assisting in the ceremonies were Rev. Father John Gasper, deacon, and Rev. Father Posjena, sub-deacon, both of St. Augustine Seminary, Rev. Father Lily of Long Beach, Very Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch, Pastor, Our Lady of the Gulf Church, Rev. Father M. J. Costello, Pastor of St. Claire's Church, Waveland, and Rev. Father William Clark also of Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

The altar and chancel of the church were beautiful with tall candles and handsome altar cloths. In baskets and vases, sprays of evergreens, dulia and Easter lilies were profusely used.

Sponsors for the eighty girls and boys who made up the local class were Miss Margaret Green and Mr. Foster Commagere.

Also being confirmed at this service were twenty soldiers from Keesler Field, Biloxi who marched up to the altar led by their chaplain, Major Patrick E. Nolan; 1st Lt. Jerome A. Major and 1st Lt. John A. Mroczka, 1st Lt. Major served as sponsor for the service men who were confirmed.

The high school students of St. Joseph Academy rendered sacred music during the ceremonies and at the benediction, under the direction of Rev. Father Neimeyer, Assistant Pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

Those in the Confirmation Class were: John J. Carter, Thomas J. Mobley, Anthony M. Fabacher, Walter J. Cleveland, Raymond P. Hagman, Marion S. Wolfe, Lawrence L. (Continued on page 6)

With the fall of Corregidor several sad messages were received in Hancock County.

Mrs. Bessie Lee of Flat Top Community, widow of the late Sam Lee, was advised that her son, George Waldon Lee, Seaman 1st Class of the United States Navy, was reported missing in action.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Weir of Bay St. Louis were informed that their adopted son, Ruble Howell Cornet, was also missing in action at Corregidor. This young man is well remembered in Bay St. Louis, having lived with the late Mr. W. T. Moon and Mr. and Mrs. Weir. He was a newsboy in Bay St. Louis for a number of years and was known as "Jack Moon."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curet of Kiln were notified that their son, Fred Curet, Jr., was missing, and Mrs. Joseph Seal of Poyune, former resident of Logtown, was advised that her son William Riley Seal, Store keeper 3rd Class, United States Navy, was missing in action in the Manila Bay area. The latter is a nephew of Mr. Leo W. Seal, President of the Hancock Bank of Bay St. Louis.

The messages advised the nearest of kin that these young men were performing their duty in the service of their country. No report of their death, or injury has been received and they may be prisoners of war. The messages also advised that it will probably be several months before definite official information can be expected, concerning the status of these young men.

It is our fervent prayer that in time, good news will reach the families of the boys who so valiantly defended their country.

Hancock County has much to be proud of. These boys and many others will probably help write history for this nation.

OUR DUTY

MANY people labor under the impression that the shores of this country will never be attacked. They may be correct. However, when news reaches us that two ships have been sunk off Southwest Pass, near the mouth of the Mississippi River by two German submarines and three ships were sunk off the Florida Coast, it makes us stop to think, and wonder how near we, on the Mississippi Coast, are to a real theatre of war and in just what position we would be, in the event the enemy attacked this country.

Would we be united in a common effort, or would we be running helter skelter, without leadership, each battling to protect one's self; or would we be united and joined together in a common effort to fight, or suffer, as one unit? It has been our hope that the people would respond to the call of those who have been placed in charge of our Civilian Defense and we are happy to say that practically all the people have responded, and are working hand in hand with those in charge of Civilian Defense. It is our belief that we have one of the best organized units of the Civilian Defense in the State of Mississippi. However, every community has its Judas Iscariots, its Benedict Arnolds and such like characters, who would sell their Lord and their country, if it served their purpose.

Bay St. Louis, and Hancock County are no exception. We have people who would strike below the belt, who would do anything, no matter how low it might be, in order to attempt to carry their point. We have people who would not hesitate to preach discord among our civilian population, so that they might become heroes or heroines of their own thoughts.

The minds of some people become so contorted through hate and prejudice of individuals that they would not hesitate to preach the gospel of our enemies in order to carry their point. These people, in our opinion, are so low that they would asphyxiate a skunk, if he came in contact with them.

We think that people of this type are in a very small minority throughout this country and the country as a whole. It is our duty, as real Americans not to allow ourselves to be drawn in by this type, but that we stand united for one purpose; to win this war at any cost.

FRENCH RESOURCES AID THE AXIS

THE landing of British forces in Madagascar serves notice upon the world that the United States and Great Britain intend to control the high seas.

While the attack was launched by a British expeditionary force, the United States promptly advised the Vichy French government that we were prepared, if necessary, to support the British.

There naturally arose terrific walls from Vichy where German stooges pretend to represent the French people. It is interesting to note, however, that no lamentations were audible when Indo-China was delivered to the Japanese to serve as a base for an offensive in the Far East.

Vichy France is Hitler's pawn, prepared to assist Gen. Rommel in Africa, the Japanese in the Far East and our enemies wherever possible. This charge is not imaginary. In Syria and Africa the French have aided Germany and in Indo-China many ships fell into Japanese control.

There may be reason to believe that the French people, if they had a chance, would assist the democracies but there is no dependence to be placed in the idea until daring deeds prove it to be the truth. Every precaution should be taken upon the presumption that the resources of France, wherever under Vichy control, are at the disposal of the Axis.

Nobody's too old, or too young, to buy War Bonds and War Stamps.

Pearl Harbor, Bataan, Corregidor—to be remembered and avenged.

If American material aids the Red Army to kill Germans, it will save American lives.

School teachers throughout the nation deserve public appreciation for service rendered in time of peace and now, with rationing and registration extra-work, the thanks of the nation.

JUDGE D. M. RUSSELL

HON. D. M. Russell, Chancellor of the Eighth Chancery Court District of Mississippi, of which Hancock County is a part, has filed with the Secretary of State his announcement as a candidate for reelection.

To date Judge Russell does not have an opponent, and it is hoped by his many friends that he will not have any and that it will not be necessary for him to enter into a campaign.

Judge Russell was born and reared in Smith County and graduated from the Law School of the University of Mississippi. He entered the practice of his profession, and when quite a young man, was elected Chancellor of the 10th Chancery Court District. Judge Russell resigned as Chancellor of the 10th Chancery Court District to accept a professorship in the law school at the University of Mississippi. He remained in this position for a period of four years, and in 1926, he moved to Gulfport and formed a partnership with the late Honorable W. J. Gex, Sr., of Bay St. Louis, and carried on the practice of his chosen profession until he was elected to succeed Judge V. A. Griffith as Chancellor of the Eighth Chancery Court District in 1928.

Judge Russell has made an enviable record as Chancellor. He commands the respect of the lawyers, officers, and litigants of his District. He is fair and impartial in his decisions, he is learned in law and is possessed of an analytical mind; all of which is borne out by the fact that very few are the times that his decisions have been reversed by the Supreme Court of Mississippi.

He is pleasant, affable and courteous to all, and is temperamentally fitted to be a judge. We are particularly honored in having such a man as Chancellor of our District.

It is our sincere hope that he will be re-elected without opposition and that we will continue to have his services as Chancellor for many years to come.

A PROFESSION OF FAITH

AS young people reach manhood and womanhood, many are prone to cast away the teachings of the faith that they received as children. Many young men leave home and forget that they have ever had any religious teaching.

When we see young men who have left home and the influences of their parents, continue to follow the teachings of their religion, we cannot but admire them. On Sunday night Most Reverend Bishop R. O. Gerow confirmed a class at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf. In this class were some eighty children, ranging in age from ten to twelve years. Also included in this class were six or seven adult women and twenty soldiers of the United States Army, stationed at Keesler Field.

These young men had probably not had an opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation in their respective parishes, and it was very commendable to see them make an open profession of their faith. Off times grown ups do not like to openly make a profession of their faith, particularly if they are associated with children. These young men, soldiers, did not hesitate to live up to the teachings that they had received in early childhood.

Confirmation is a Sacrament instituted by Christ, to give Grace, through which we receive the Holy Ghost to make us strong and perfect Christians and Soldiers of Jesus Christ. These young men, going on to defend their country, are also believers and soldiers of the Lord, the Savior of all mankind.

To the chaplains at Keesler Field, we express our sincere congratulations for the good work that they are doing. It is through their efforts that these boys attend to their religious duties. It is a happy thought for the parents of these young men to know that their sons are able to continue, and are being aided by these men of God, in the practice of their faith.

DOUBLE THE DOSE!

PRIME Minister Churchill in his speech on Sunday evening, gave to the world one of his best reports, so far, on the progress of the war.

The Prime Minister of England stated that, if the Nazis attempt to use gas in this war, although Britain's attitude is one of abhorrence for the use of gas, Germany will be inviting disaster for her cities and her people by starting the use of it, and Britain will strike back fearfully.

We are in thorough accord with the statement of the Prime Minister and we believe that anything that the Axis Powers start, the United Nations should give them a double dose in return. It is our belief that we can out-manufacture them and out-fight them, and that from now on, this should be a war to the finish.

It is our belief that the German people and their allies cannot take it. They are great on handing it out, but when destruction and death strikes their homeland, they will throw up their hands and ask for an armistice. We should crush the powers that be in these countries, so that never again will they rise to cause the trouble, the sorrow and heartaches that they have caused to the people of this great country.

THE UNITED SERVICE ORGANIZATION

WE are being called upon to make contributions to the United States Service Organization. This is a great and worthy cause and we should respond freely.

The United Service Organization is a combination of agencies, representing Catholic, Protestant and Jewish Faiths. It was formed for the purpose of caring for the spiritual and recreational welfare and social needs of the men in America's Armed Forces. At the present time there are six hundred seventy-one United Service Organizations Club Houses and smaller units in the United States and other bases. These Club Houses are staffed by trained workers who are doing a vital job in this war-time world.

Our quota for Mississippi is $130,000.00. The people of Hancock County will gladly help make up this quota and will raise the quota assigned to them and we will feel happy for having had the privilege of donating to a cause which means so much to the welfare of the fighting men of our country.

Hancock County Men in "The Service"

The Sea Coast Echo wishes to advise the parents or relatives of any of these men that it will gladly mail a copy of the paper to the boys if their address is given to the office.

The newspaper will bring direct to the men away from home news of what the folks back home are doing and we hope this service will be one which they may enjoy.

The following list of names was supplied The Echo and should any service man's name be omitted it would be appreciated if it would be sent in.

You Can Help Keep Your Electric Service at a High Standard by These Simple Means

1. Give as much notice as possible when you move.
2. Learn to replace blown fuses yourself. It's as easy as changing a light bulb. People at any of our offices (or your meter reader) will show you how. Keep a few spare fuses on hand.
3. If your refrigerator is more than three years old, ask for an inspection before hot weather comes. The cost is moderate, and the service man (your dealer's or ours) can make the inspection when he has another call in your neighborhood. That will help avoid a rush trip later. If repairs or adjustments are indicated, they can be made before the summer rush season.
4. Avoid requesting "rush" service. Try not to call for service on Saturdays, Sundays or at night. You can help the Nation save rubber by permitting us to handle your service calls on regular trips.
5. Be patient with the trouble man or service man. Remember that he'll be carrying an extra burden. He'll get to you as fast as he can. But you wouldn't want him to hurry so much that he'd become slipshod in his work.
6. Use as much electricity as you NEED—but don't waste it. Don't waste anything.

Scarcities in tires, automobiles, trucks and many other materials and equipment—and the growing shortage of skilled men—make it necessary to ask for your cooperation so that you can still have good service, although it may not be as good as before the war, or good as we would prefer it to be.

Flower Preservatives

How to keep flowers fresh after they have been gathered either in the cool of the evening, or in the early morning, and brought into the house to be used for decorative purposes, is of genuine concern to the ever increasing number of gardeners who are competing in Flower Arrangement classes at Flower shows. Scientific methods have long been known and practiced by the Japanese but it is not until recently that flower lovers in America have become interested in prolonging the life and beauty of cut flowers.

All cut flowers should be placed in a deep pail filled with cool water, in a cool room, free from drafts, for about two hours. When you are ready to arrange them, strip the stems of foliage for at least four inches from the base.

Calla Lilies and Leaves: One half a cup of vinegar to one quart of water.

Daisies (any variety): Place in water which contains eight drops of oil of peppermint per quart.

Delphinium and Larkspur: Crush stems and plunge into water containing one-half tablespoon of alcohol per quart.

Forget-me-nots: Plunge the tips of stems in boiling water, then into cold water.

Gardenias: After being cut from the mother plant, they absorb water only through the petals, and leaves.

For best results, simply spray with water.

Gladioli: Place in water containing a tablespoon alcohol per quart. Iris: Burn the tip of the stem, then plunge into cold water.

Poppies: Burn ends, and rub burned end in table salt and plunge in cold water.

Roses: Make a clean cut. Burn tip of stem. Plunge into cold water to which alum has been added. One tablespoon powdered alum to a quart of water.

Sweet Peas: Place in water containing one tablespoon alcohol per quart.

Columbine: Rub in a little table salt into the cut ends. Let stand in water for two hours.

Larkspur: Solution of one-half a teaspoon of alcohol to two quart cold water. Let stand at least on hour.

Lilies (all types): Turn upside down and allow water to flow over them before placing stems in deep water.

Pinks: Three tablespoons of table salt to one quart of water.

Petunias: Cold water to which vinegar has been added.

Shasta Daisies: Burn ends, soak one hour in cold water.

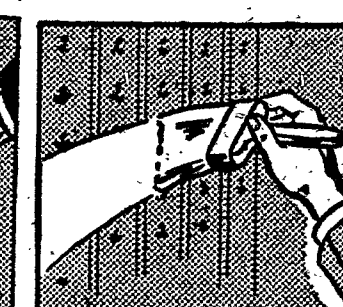

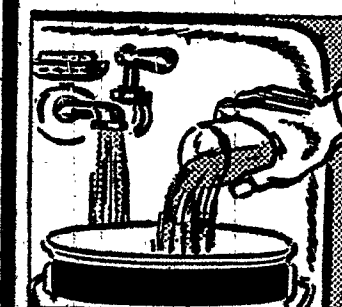

Wild Flowers: Gentians, fall asters, butterfly weed and trillium will keep fresh longer if a tablespoon of sugar has been added to the water. One quart of a cup of sugar may be added to a gallon of water.

THE FLAG, ITS USE AND ABUSE

THE HOUSE has passed joint Resolution 303 to codify existing rules and customs pertaining to the use and display of the United States Flag, as recommended by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the American Flag Committee. The resolution, slightly shortened, is as follows:

1. The flag should not be displayed on days when the weather is inclement.
2. The flag should be displayed on all days when the weather permits, especially on New Year's Day, January 1; Inauguration Day, January 20; Lincoln's Birthday, February 12; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Army Day, April 6; Easter Sunday (variable); Mother's Day, Second Sunday in May; Memorial Day (half staff until noon), May 30; Flag Day, June 14; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, first Monday in September; Constitution Day, September 17; Columbus Day, October 12; Navy Day, October 27; Armistice Day, November 11; Thanksgiving Day, last Thursday in November; Christmas Day, December 25; the birthday of States (dates of admission); and on State holidays.
3. The flag should be displayed daily, weather permitting, on or near the main administration building of every public institution.
4. The flag should be displayed in or near every polling place on election days.
5. The flag should be displayed during school days in or near every school house.
6. The flag, when carried in a procession with another flag or flags, should be either on the marching right, that is, the flag's own right, or, if there is a line of flags, in front of the center of that line.
7. The flag should not be displayed on a float in a parade except from a staff.
8. The flag should not be draped over the hood, top, sides or back of a vehicle or of a railroad train or a boat. When the flag is displayed on a motorcar, the staff shall be fixed firmly to the chassis or clamped to the radiator cap.
9. No other flag or pennant should be placed above or, if on the same level, to the right of the flag.
10. When the flag of the United States is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony, or front of a building, the union of the flag should be placed at the peak of the staff unless the flag is at half staff.
11. When the flag is displayed otherwise than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union (the stars) should be uppermost and to the flag's own right; that is, to the observer's left.
12. When the flag is displayed over the middle of the street, it should be suspended vertically with the union to the north in an east and west street or to the east in a north and south street.
13. When used on a speaker's platform, the flag is displayed flat, should be above and behind the speaker; if on a staff, at the speaker's right.
14. The flag should form a distinctive feature of the ceremony of unveiling a statue or monument, but it should never be used as the covering for a statue or monument.
15. The flag, when flown at half staff, should be hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-staff position.
16. When the flag is used to cover a casket, it should be so placed that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The flag should not be lowered into the grave or allowed to touch the ground.
17. No disrespect should be shown to the flag of the United States of America, the flag should not be dipped to any person or thing. Regimental colors, State flags, and organization or institutional flags are to be dipped as a mark of honor.
18. The flag should never be displayed with the union down save as a signal of dire distress.
19. The flag should never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, the floor, water or merchandise.
20. The flag should never be carried flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.
21. The flag should never be used as drapery of any sort whatsoever, never fastened, drawn back, nor up, in folds, but always allowed to fall free.
22. The flag should never be fastened, displayed, used or stored in such a manner as will permit it to be easily torn, soiled, or damaged in any way.
23. The flag should never be used as a covering for a ceiling.
24. The flag should never have placed upon it, nor on part of it, nor attached to it, any mark, insignia, letter, word, figure, design, picture, or drawing of any nature.
25. The flag should never be used as a receptacle for receiving, holding, carrying or delivering anything.
26. The flag should never be used for advertising purposes in any manner.
27. When worn out, a flag should be destroyed, preferably by burning.

MAJOR NOLAN PEYROUX, FORMER BAY SAINT LOUIS BOY

Stationed at Camp Shelby; Is Chief of U. S. Army Motion Picture Service

An article of interest to the people of Bay St. Louis, about Major Nolan Peyroux, appeared in the Hattiesburg American. This former Bay St. Louis boy is now a major in the United States Army and is presently stationed at Camp Shelby. Major Peyroux lived in Bay St. Louis with his mother and is a graduate of Bay High School. They occupied the dwelling at the corner of State and Touline streets.

The following is a copy of the article that appeared in the Hattiesburg American: Former Kleig lights to camp lights is the story of Major Nolan R. Peyroux, who when he was a younger man, had no ambition whatsoever to have anything to do with moving pictures but who now is at Camp Shelby as chief of the U. S. Army Motion Picture Service after a career as a Hollywood producer.

Major Peyroux, a New Orleansian, studied journalism at Tulane and L. S. U., worked on the Times-Picayune for awhile and ran a music house with his wife, the former Eloise Stocking of New Orleans.

The Peyrouxs were doing fairly well in New Orleans when a big chance came for them to prepare music for motion pictures and in 1934 they moved to California. Soon afterwards they acquired an animated cartoon motion picture studio.

Commercial Films
By a simple process of conversion, the couple turned the studio into a commercial film-making establishment and began turning out educational films for large industries. Named for Mrs. Peyroux, E. M. Stocking Films was making pictures for oil companies, steel mills, plant food concerns and grain mills, among other industries, when the war started, Major Peyroux, a first lieutenant in the last war, volunteered for service again.

As chance would have it, he was assigned in November, 1940, to Camp Shelby—the same camp where he had been discharged as a machine gun officer in 1919.

Today, after his career in Hollywood, which will be taken up after the war, he heads one of the biggest businesses at Camp Shelby. Operated by and for soldiers it has given back to the men $60,000 in profits since he came to camp.

Seven Theaters
Almost 10,000 soldiers can be seated at one time in the seven theaters on the military reservation, and with two shows nightly, it is not unusual to have a house of 15,000. For 20 cents each, or 14 cents if a man buys 10 tickets at $1.40, the service men see the best pictures available 30 days after their national release, which most of the time is several weeks before they get to Hattiesburg.

Pershing's Idea
It is a big business which started during the last war shortly after General Pershing said, "I'd rather have 1,000 entertained soldiers than have 10,000 without diversion."

The War Department took the general's word to heart and soon the Army shows made their appearance. Through the period of peace they survived for the men who made the skeleton of an army, giving them training films for their own and national guard use.

With the rising power of the new army, camp shows mushroomed all over the country until today there are almost 600 of them listed.

At Shelby the theaters have been given the go-ahead from Camp Commander George M. Halloran, who has been instrumental in making the theaters as comfortable as possible. Two recreation halls have been converted for pictures to help take care of the overflow of the permanent theaters and the three tent theaters.

Athletic Equipment
Forty percent of the profits of the shows revert back to the men, according to regulations. Since it is up to the camp commander to decide how it shall be returned, Col. Halloran chose other recreation facilities as the best. At Shelby it goes to athletic equipment and every other means of keeping a soldier occupied when off duty.

The job of operations is handled by Major Peyroux's non-com staff, headed by Master Sgt. John B. Moore of Pittsburgh, Pa. Fourteen men are on full-time assignment at the theaters, one manager and one projectionist to each show. Serving also are 62 other soldiers who pick up extra money working as ushers and the like around the theaters.

General Sugar Registration

LAST week, beginning Monday and running through Thursday, everybody in the United States except in the military forces and a few other exceptions, were required to go to their school building and be registered by a teacher, listing name, address, race, age, height, weight, color of hair and eyes. This was done in connection with the rationing of sugar, and was the most complete registration of people of the United States ever undertaken in history.

Under the new, coupon system, which is a war measure, each person will be allowed to buy one half pound of sugar per week. Under the old system, before the rationing card was issued and put into effect, the normal consumption of sugar was a fraction less than one pound per day for each person, including commercial use, or a total of 128,800,000 pounds per day. Approximately 38 per cent coming from the West Indies and 27 per cent from Hawaii and the Philippines.

No Middle Ground
Back in 1935 when Charles Lindbergh was acclaimed a hero and visited Jackson, his photo was hung in a place of honor in the office of Secretary of State, Walker Wood. Later it came down. Saturday the picture of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, hero No. 1 of the present war, was given that place of honor in Mr. Wood's office, and the picture is draped in American flags in a V for victory formation. "There is no middle ground—Win is Freedom—Lose is Slavery. We are either for America, or against America—There is no place in this country for appeasers, conscientious objectors and isolationists. No picture can adorn my office except an outspoken, 100 per cent American," Secretary Wood said.

All Time High
According to the record of the State Tax Commission tax collections for the month of April reached an all-time high for that month. Collections for the first four months of 1942 are well ahead of the same period of 1941, exceeding last year's total by substantially three million dollars. The sales tax for the first four months of 1942 reached a total of $3,559,637 against $2,702,539 for 1941.

Forest Fires' Toll
During the year 1941, according to reports of the forestry service, approximately 8,000,000 acres of woodland in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana were burnt over by forest fires, entailing damage to young trees estimated at around $7,000,000. The forestry service urges all people to co-operate in an effort to keep fires out of the woods and thus save the young trees, which mean wealth to the state in the future.

Final Ginners Report
The final ginner's report has been issued on the 1941 cotton crop in the United States and shows that the total ginned was 10,744,000 bales for the cotton growing states. Mississippi produced 1,424,000 bales and the average per-acre yield of lint in this state was 288 pounds.

3 Million Barrels
In the month of March Mississippi produced substantially three million barrels of crude oil, this being a record production for the state. The market price of the Mississippi oil seems to be slightly less than one dollar per barrel.

Washington Representative Of Red Cross Visits Bay Saint Louis Chapter

The Hancock County Chapter of the American Red Cross had a visit last week from Miss Ruth Englehorn, Home Service Representative from Washington D. C. Miss Englehorn re-organized the local committee and gave a great many helpful suggestions to Mrs. Louis F. Maumus, Executive Chairman, and assisted greatly in clarifying a number of phases of the work.

Mrs. Maumus is anxious for people here to understand that Red Cross is a direct governmental agency with a two-way flow of service in behalf of service men and their families and some cases of dire need have been assisted here in our own community.

The Production Department, under head of Mrs. G. Y. Balazs, has just completed placing in condition a large supply of clothing received from Keesler Field in which there were on hundred woolen garments, fifty shirts and a number of pairs of shoes which boys going into service discarded and which were sent to the Bay St. Louis chapter and will be used for local relief. It is also expected that enough clothing will be on hand to supply needy children in the county to begin the next school session.

Today, with nearly 2,000,000 men in our Army camps and the prospect of 4,000,000 in uniform by early fall, the Red Cross is serving on the military front from Iceland to the Canal Zone, from Alaska to the Philippines, in India and Australia.

The Red Cross is a long-established link between the military and the home front, and because Red Cross Field Directors and hospital workers in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard and at Army and Naval hospitals cooperate closely with the more than 3,700 Red Cross Chapters in the United States, Home Service is the family's tie with the man on active duty.

Library Notes

The Hancock County Library is in receipt of forty-three books from the Clovenhook Home for the Blind which are new and good books and if purchased from the publishers would have cost the library $97.30 but the actual cost to the library was merely transportation charges, $3.11. These are some of the best—so come in and read them before someone takes the books out. It is doubtful that many libraries, if any, can boast of such generous friends who always remember the library. These things speak well for the progress the library has made when it gets this type of recognition from out of town friends.

The library also appreciates a new copy of Tucker's Miss Susie Slagle's from Mrs. Alice C. Buckley and a new copy of Alcott's "Aunt Joe's Scrap Book" from Mrs. A. G. Shear.

Owing to the crowded schedule this season when schools are closing the library board announces that there will be no "Book Review" for the month of May but there will be one in June.

as director in Mississippi for the OPA, under Leon Henderson, and will assume his duties upon returning from Atlanta where he has gone for special instructions. For the past several months Major Holcomb has been acting as an assistant to Gov. Johnson.

Brigadier General Thomas J. Grayson has resigned as director of the state's Selective Service System and requested that he be given other duties in the military organization. Gen. Grayson also resigned as Adjutant General of the State guard in the Selective Service position. Gov. Johnson has recommended Maj. Lawrence W. Long to succeed Gen. Grayson and as Adjutant General the Governor has recommended Maj. James L. Davis.

Rotary Governor

L. O. Todd, president of East Central Junior College located at Decatur, was unanimously nominated for governor of the 141st Rotary district at the Rotary convention held in Jackson last week. His nomination will be confirmed by the International Rotary convention to be held in Toronto in June.

STANISLAUS NEWS NOTES

THE excitement is rising, work is speeding up and some boys are still running around trying to uncover a date. Why? The Prom is Saturday night. This Junior-Senior Prom is the dance at Stanislaus. Though it is for Juniors and Seniors, few invitations will be extended to other persons. No one will be admitted without an invitation.

Sunday, May 10 has become a memorable day in the hearts of many. The reason? Confirmation. Boys and girls, both large and small, and a large group of soldiers from Keesler Field became soldiers of Christ and heirs of heaven. Our most reverend Bishop R. O. Gerow was the administrator of the Holy Sacrament. Miss Margaret Green was sponsor for the girls and Mr. Forster Commagere was the sponsor for the boys. One of the chaplains from Keesler Field was the sponsor for the soldiers. Those from Stanislaus who were confirmed were: John Carter, Thomas Mobley, Anthony Fabacher, Walter Cleveland, Ray Hagmann, Marion Wolfe, Larry Hanover, Anthony Marengo, Jack Landry, Charles Kuhn, Dominic White, Claude Kohler, Jules DeBarros, Ferdie Willoz, Charles Poolson, Phil Kergosien, Ambrose Chini, Albert Fayard, Charles Carter, Robert Greene, Albert Piazza, Layton Weinberg, Dan Lafontaine, Luke Scianna, Norman Greene, Tommy January, Curtis Colson; Wilbert Adams, Salvador Starita, Ben Moore, John Praetorius, Francis Molty, Clements Bontemps, Joe Viguerie, Gustret, Jacob Morreale, Ernest Gatti, John Kerrigan and Edward Landry.

Monday, May 11, Stanislaus was honored with a lecture by the Most Reverend Richard O. Gerow, D. D. The short talk that he delivered was very practicable. No objections were voiced when the Reverend Bishop announced a half holiday.

Sunday afternoon a large number of Stanislaus students journeyed to Pascagoula to attend the annual Coast Student Sodality Union's Crowning of Our Blessed Mother, Mary. Those making the trip were: Kenneth Wintz, Sidney Gautreaux, Jose Perez, Evans Brien, Fletcher Daniels, Roy Cangelosi, Dick Freeman, J. T. Prosser, Armstrong Mahoney, Randolph Gonzales, Horace Joffre, Roger Boh, Norman Toups, Joseph Cimo, Stuart Burris, James Elmer, Carlo Uchello, Joseph Morris, Lorne Breedwood, Peter Benvenuti, Lacy Green, J. V. Cangelosi, E. Pettigean.

Band Department
The excitement of the State Contest being over, the band is tapering off a little from the strenuous practices which preceded the Contest. The night rehearsals have been called off. The afternoon practices which are held on every school day, will continue till the end of the school term. There remains but two major public appearances for the band; the commencement exercises of St. Joseph Academy and those of Saint Stanislaus.

The medals awarded to each member of the band for obtaining a Superior Rating at the Contest have not been received. It is hoped that they will arrive before the end of the school term.

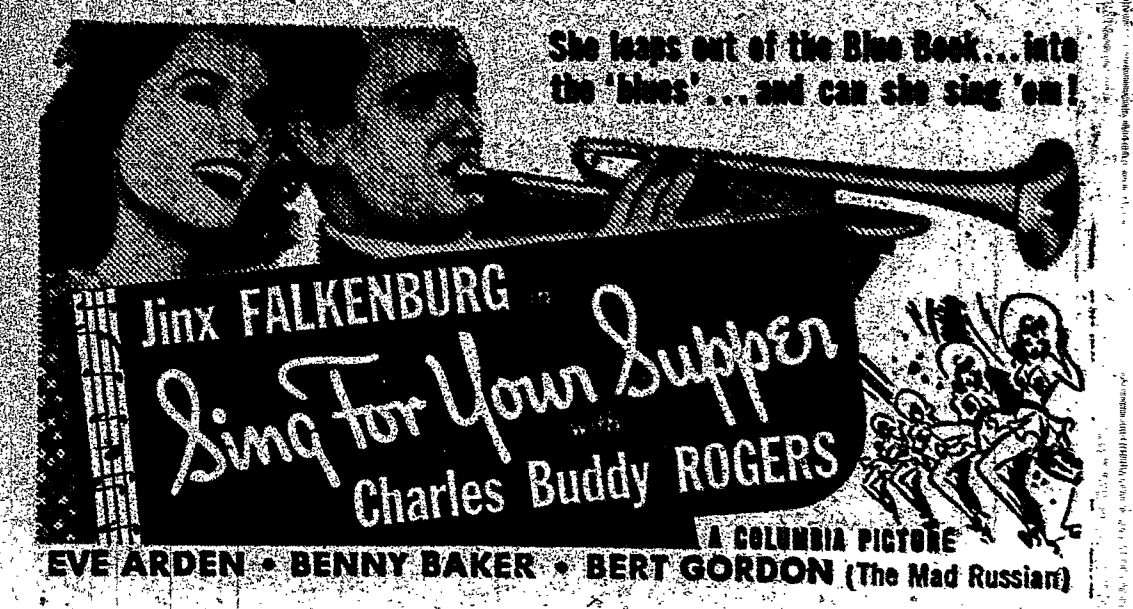

Brother Romuald informs us that of the present personnel of the band, only four members will be lost by graduation. They are Otto Roemer, Luke Benigno, Hugh Kiefer and Lawrence Hebert. If all the members who are boarders return to Stanislaus next fall, the prospects of a good band will be better than that of this year.

Bay Rotary Club Hears Interesting Talk at Meeting

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club held at Hotel Reed on last Wednesday, members heard an interesting talk on the value of Rotary membership by Dr. Frank Leavell of Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Leavell a noted speaker having addressed Rotary Clubs all over the world.

Mr. Richard F. Lawton of the New Orleans Rotary Club was a guest of the club on Wednesday.

Grammar Grade Champs Entertained

THURSDAY night, May 7th, the Grammar Grade basketball team was honored with a banquet at the school. All the team members and the two coaches of the Hancock County Champion Blue Jays were present.

The banquet table was arranged in the form of a "J" and the team's colors of blue and white were carried out in the decorations. Mother St. John welcomed those present and at the end of banquet presented monogram awards to the players and school pennants to the coaches.

The Blue Jays honored at the banquet were Joyce McAdams, Udell Favis, Carol Knost, Ruth Perre, Margie Haas, Patsy Favre, George Rose Staehle, Rosemary Dick, Gloria Saucier, Betty Herlihy, Audrey Poolson, and the two coaches, Miss Elaine Lamer, and Miss Rosalie Ambler.

C. S. S. U. May Crowning
Sunday, May 10, members of the Sodality at S. J. attended the Coast Crowning in Pascagoula. Five of the Sodality were privileged to serve as maids in the Queen's Court. These girls were Miss Rosalie Ambler, Miss Gladys Capdepon, Miss Mary Drew, Miss Elaine Lamer, Miss Margaret Schmidt.

The ceremony of the crowning opened with a procession through the business district to Our Lady of Victories school grounds where an altar had been erected. Miss Eloise Westphal of Pascagoula crowned the Blessed Virgin and Father Cornelius, C. P., addressed the gathering. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by Father Niemeyer, director of the Coast Student Sodality Union climaxed the crowning. Seven schools from along the Coast participated in this very colorful and inspiring ceremony.

Junior-Senior Prom
After much anxiety and work on the part of the Juniors (and incidentally on the part of some willing workers from S. S. C.) the Juniors and Seniors spent a delightful evening at the Annual Junior and Senior Prom which was held May 9th at St. Joseph's Memorial Hall.

The theme was patriotic and the hall resembled an Arabian tent made of red, white and blue paper. Balloons of patriotic colors hung in the center were illuminated by electric lights. In the rear of the hall was the orchestra pit decorated with red, white and blue painted palm-trees under a covering of stars. Tables ornamented with blue vases containing red and white sweet peas were placed around the interior of the tent. The chaperones served daintily cut sandwiches, cakes and coca cola. During the course of the evening each Senior received a favor of sterling silver miniature graduation cap.

The Seniors who were entertained at this delightful Prom were Miss Rosalie Ambler, Miss Gladys Capdepon, Miss Jackie Cuevas, Miss Natalie Buehler, Miss Elaine Lamer, Miss Marie Louise Schayot. It is certain that the Seniors will carry the memory of this enjoyable evening with them for a long time.

First Aid
On April 2nd at S. J. A. "First Aid" a much talked about subject during the present emergency found its place in the curriculum. And on May 14th a large number of Juniors and Seniors completed First Aid Standard Course in First Aid. During these weeks the "First Aid" studied among other topics Artificial Respiration, Digital Pressure, the use and value of Tourniquets, the treatment of fractures, bandaging treatment of poisons, and war gases.

Within a short time the following girls will receive a certificate which testifies that they have satisfactorily fulfilled all the requirements of this course. Those who will receive this certificate are Rosalie Ambler, Betty Barker, Eleanor Jean Parker, Natalie Buehler, Gladys Capdepon, Amelia Chadwick, Jackie Cuevas, Margie Elliott, Margie Greene, Elaine Lamer, Paula Planchet, Marie Louise Schayot, Mary Margaret Schmidt, Florence Swanner, Irma Tudury, Raye Valrin, Martha Xidis.

First Aiders

FIRST Aid Course proves lifesaver when husband falls and breaks ankle.

As Fortune Jaubert lies up with his foot in a cast and looks back on the accident that befell him the week end before Easter he is thankful that he and his wife took first aid courses in the early days of our defense preparation. They were driving home after a week-end at the Jaubert summer place at Waveland when they stopped at a fishing camp for shrimp. He took a short cut across an abandoned building and fell through some rafters into seaweed, breaking his ankle in four places and knocking him unconscious. An old fisherman found him and ran to tell his wife, who sat waiting in the car. Remembering her first aid administrations she refused to have him moved at first, rushed to get ammonia to treat him for shock then flagged down a car of six soldiers all of whom knew first aid. They moved him in a blanket rigidly according to proper first aid directions to the road to await an ambulance. The doctor complimented the first aiding wife.

Rationing of Sugar Does Not Rank as Kitchen Catastrophe

Sugar is not indispensable; it is an emergency food for which can be substituted cereals, fat, fruit sugar, syrup and honey.

Fresh fruit as a dessert should not be overlooked. This would require very little preparation and no additional sugar is needed. Dried fruit adds sweets to the meal and may be used in making puddings and to sweeten breakfast cereals.

Syrup, honey and corn syrup may be substituted for sugar recipes.

Honey for sweetening may be substituted cup for cup for sugar. Even though cakes made with a syrup are heavier than sugar cakes, yet they have the advantage of remaining moist longer. If you substitute medium thick honey for all the sugar in a recipe, reduce the liquid one half. If one half of the sugar is substituted with honey reduce the liquid one fourth.

You give to someone you know when you give to USO

The USO serves one great purpose—to see that our boys in the camps and naval stations have a place to go, to turn to, a "home away from home." The duties of USO have more than doubled during the year. Its field of operations has enlarged to include almost the entire face of the globe. To carry on its all-important work, it needs funds. It needs your contribution. No matter how small you make the contribution, USO needs it NOW.

Good Provider Contest for 1942

Enrollments are being received now in the Good Provider Contest, sponsored by the Times-Picayune and New Orleans Association of Commerce in cooperation with the Mississippi Extension Service. The Good Provider Competition is open to any white farm family in the Southeast and Southwest extension districts of Mississippi who has not won sweepstakes prizes in this contest in the past.

Entrants will be judged on the amount of food and feed grown for home consumption and for diversion into the war effort, based on food and feed requirements listed in the Mississippi Extension nutrition program.

Cash prizes amounting to $1000 will be awarded. First and second prizes will be awarded in both land owner and tenant-share cropper divisions in the two southern districts of the state. Sweepstakes will be awarded in both districts.

Enrollments must be received this month. County and Home agents and farm security administration supervisors will enroll entrants in the contest and will furnish record books. The period to be covered by this record is January 1, 1942 through November 15, 1942. Records are to be turned in to the county or home agent at conclusion of contest and will be judged by a local county committee to determine county winners. County winners will be scored by a special district committee on an agricultural extension district basis.

The Acres of Independence Contest sponsored by the Daily Clarion Ledger, also offers approximately $1000 to farmers in Mississippi. This contest entrance date will close June 1st. Farm families interested in either of these contests should contact the county or home demonstration agent before June 1st.

Now that sugar is being used sparingly the following suggestions may be helpful.

Serve cooked fruits hot to enjoy their fullest flavor and sweetness. Save sirup from canned fruit to sweeten other fruit, pudding sauces, or beverages. A pinch of salt increases the sweetening power of sugar in cooked foods.

Be sure all sugar is completely dissolved to get in full sweetness. The following table gives the sweetening power of different sirups of honey, and of maple sugar, as compared with 1 cup of refined white sugar:

Maple sugar	1 cup
Maple sirup	1 cup
Honey	1 cup
Sorghum sirup	1 1/4 cup
Cane sirup	1 1/4 cup
Corn sirup	2 cups

Best rules to follow in shifting recipes from refined white sugar to other sweeteners are:

Cakes and Cookies
Honey: Replace sugar with honey, cup for cup, but use one-half the quantity of other liquid called for. That is, if the original recipe called for 1 cup sugar and 1 cup milk, use 1/2 cup honey and 1/2 cup milk. Other ingredients remain the same.

Corn, Cane or Maple Sirups
Replace sugar with sirup, measure by measure and reduce liquid only one-third.

Cookies made with corn and cane sirup are not as sweet as sugar cookies.
Sorghum Sirup: Follow the same rule as with other sirups, but reduce the baking powder called for in the original recipe. Use 1/2 teaspoon of soda for every cup of sorghum. This quantity of soda and sorghum has leavening power equal to 2 teaspoons of baking powder.

Breads and Patties
These call for little sweetening anyway so there's no problem in shifting from sugar to sirup, or to Whatever sweetener is available. Replace one with any other in exactly the quantity called for by the original recipe.

Jams, Jellies, Preserves

Use honey in place of half the sugar called for in the original recipe and increase the cooking time a little to allow for the extra liquid to evaporate. Or replace up to one-fourth the sugar with corn sirup.

Canning Fruit
The best way to get around the sugar situation is to can fruit without any sweetening and add sweetener just before serving.

W. P. A. SCHOOL LUNCH AND GARDEN CANNING PROJECT

Since August 1941, over 108,636 lunches have been served in the W. P. A. School Lunch Room Units. The location of these units are in the following schools: Catahoula, Catahoula (Colored), Dedaux, Flat Top, Lakeshore, Kiln, Sellers and Valena C. Jones. St. Margaret's Lunch Room is in the Boy Scout House behind the Catholic Church and this Unit serves lunches to many of the children in Bay St. Louis, boys attending the little back school, some are day student at St. Stanislaus, some day students at the Convent and others from Bay High.

Now all rural schools are closed for vacation and only the two Units in Bay St. Louis operating, St. Margaret's and Valena C. Jones. A garden and canning center in connection with this program is being carried on. This year, instead of having several small gardens and canning centers throughout the county, there will be just one large garden and canning center. The location of these Units, both W. P. A. School garden and W. P. A. Canning Center will be at Kiln, Mississippi. This place being the most centrally located community in the county. Workers from all parts of the county will be employed in these centers, if they are assigned to the project and can find transportation to and from work.

If we have favorable weather conditions, the garden will be one of the best in the county. We hope to make it the best in the District. We now have beans, tomatoes, greens, beets, carrots, etc., planted and if we had had rain, the workers in the canning center would now be busy canning greens, beets, etc. We hope to have 25,980 quarts of vegetables and 5,498 quarts of fruit canned during summer, this is what our budget calls for.

The canned produce will be divided about among the schools contributing to the project, according to the amount they give towards the cost of the project.

Miss Caro L. Weston is the County Supervisor of the Project; Mrs. Albia C. Gray of Meridian, District Supervisor and Miss Olive Kline, of Jackson, State Supervisor.

If any one is interested in the project and would like to know more about it, Miss Weston will be glad to see them and explain more to them about it. Miss Weston's office is in back of R. E. A. Building on Cue Street, facing the courthouse.

Miss Vivian Egloff is Senior Time-keeper and clerical clerk of the project. She is efficient in her work and is in the office from 8 a. m. until 12 n.—1 p. m. until 3 p. M.

GET IN THE SCRAP

JUST A Minute There. Don't throw away that rubber band! Go easy on your tires. If your galoshes are shot save them for the reclaim man. Never in our history has there been a rubber hunger to compare with that of your fighting forces today, the rubber shortage is so critical that conservation of this material has become an obligation of patriotism. Experts estimate that some 500,000 tons of reclaimed rubber can be found in the United States every year. SO PLEASE call the Salvage Committee at once to come and get your old rubber. Phone 386-58 or 126.

Have you an attic, a basement, a garage, a storeroom? Those are the proper jumping off places for a "scrap" materials hunt.

The following articles are good and can be used:

1. Old auto tires and inner tubes, (with rubber heels and soles, tennis shoes)
2. Rubber heels and soles, without nails.
3. Boots and over shoes, shoes.
4. Hot water bottles, rubber gloves.
5. Rain coats, bathing caps and shoes.
6. Tire heads, solid truck tires.
7. Rubber covered hose.
8. Jar rings, baby carriage wheels, fly swatters.
9. Rubber stamps, plumbers section cups.
10. Miscellaneous rubber items of all kinds.

SAVE EVERY SCRAP OF PAPER

"As useless as yesterday's newspaper" is another half-truth that has been knocked into your waste basket, for the war has made paper all important. Normally, better than half of all the paper used in the United States is lost forever because we don't take the trouble to save it for the junk man. It literally goes to waste. Paper is especially important because nearly half of our paper production is paper board which is made almost entirely from waste paper. If we can only save the paper formally discarded in furnaces, garbage heaps and alleys we shall get through the shortage in time.

Tips endorsed by waste collectors: Don't burn or destroy your waste paper. Save it for the collector. Ask your grocer to use as few bags as possible when you go shopping.

Use your own market bag when you shop to save paper wrappings. Have your purchases delivered in cartons that can be returned to the store for re-use.

Organize a paper collection drive in your community. If one is already underway, get into it. If these simple rules were followed by every American there would result a saving of one pound of paper per day per family. There are more than 30 million families in the United States. Just add that up for a year.

The Boy Scouts collect paper in Bay St. Louis every Thursday. Just give Carl Arnold a ring at 91 if you have any waste paper and he will see that they get it.

Don't forget to save all cancelled postage stamps for the Girl Scouts.

Joe Cospelich tells of the large catches that are being made around the vicinity of Edwardsville and Cat Fish Bayous.

Mr. W. Scott Morrill, "our fishing Barometer" says there is good fishing just everywhere now. He knows for he is one of our most ardent fishermen.

Following is a number of places which cater to fishermen and where boats may be rented include Bayou Caddy south end of Beach Road, at end of seawall on North Beach, at Joe Cospelich's Ship Yard out Main Street, the Poor House on the Kiln Road on Bayou LaCroix; Nicolas on Jordan River; Taconi's Wharf on Beach front; Bayou Bogue Home at Logtown; and at Gainesville on Pearl River.

Andy Anderson and Coach Clay Boyd have been trying out floundering lately, but with little success. Maybe the tide is just not right.

Soft crabbing still remains unchanged, conditions just won't get right. However, with low tides in the evenings there should be a decided change shortly.

Fishing at Delisle is improving all the time. Several catches of fresh water fish have been reported.
